

J. J. Stohr ✓

Services were held Saturday, Jan. 21 for Jacob J. Stohr, a long-time Claremont barber. Rev. Ronald Hastings officiated at the memorial service held in the Methodist church in Claremont.

Mr. Stohr was born in Alma, Wis. Feb. 20, 1890. In 1912 he moved to Langford. He married Ethel Tomkins Feb. 20, 1917. In the fall of 1918 they moved to Claremont. Mr. Stohr took over a barber shop there. He was a member of the Claremont school board for about 20 years.

Mr. Stohr passed away at a Minneapolis hospital on Jan. 19. He had been hospitalized about two weeks.

Survivors include his wife and one son, Emery, a brother, Matt, of Alma, Wis., a sister, Mrs. Julia Pulver of Twin Bridges, Mont., a niece and nephew, and three grandchildren of Claremont.

Burial was in the Groton cemetery.